RAPS PRACTICE OF SPITTING ON FLOORS

Transmits Germs Says Dr. L. E. Foulks City Health Officer

PUBLIC IS CARELESS

Expectorating on Sidewalks and Floors of Public Places Jeopardizes Health of Others—Stop It

I do not know of a more dangerour or viscous practice as far as the public is concerned than spitting upon the floors of public buildings, or the sidewalks, said Dr. L. E. Foulks, city health officer, today.

There is no longer any question or doubt but what this filthy practice is largely responsible in transmitting the germs of tuberculosis, as well as those of other disease of the organs of respiration.

As I have often pointed out in articles, the filth of the sidewalks is tracked into our houses and left on the rugs, carpets and floors and later, when dried, raises in the form of dust to be inhaled by the occupants.

Again little children playing on the the floors, get their hands covered with this tracked in filth from the street. Just watch a small child and see how often it will put its fingers into its mouth. There you have a fairly direct method of infection.

In all diseases caused by bacteria or germs, these deadly little organisms can always be found in the discharge of the person suffering from such a disease. That is to say in any excretions from the nose, mouth bladder or bowels. This being true, it can be easily understood how necessary it is to prevent any such discharge from coming into contact with healthy people, either directly or indirectly.

How many people walking along our streets, will step to the gutter when they wish to spit? From my observation, about one in ten. The other nine will spit where they chance to be. This in many cases is simply thoughtlessness. They all know better, but they do not think. That once more brings up the old point I have harped upon so many times, that is the disregard of little things. It is the so-called little hings that are very often most productive of danger.

Each of has an unquestioned right in our pursuit of health, wealth and happiness, but with that right goes a personal responsibility. We have no right to stand in the way of, or jeopardize another in his or her equal right to pursue the same desired things. And when we carelessly spit upon the floor of the car, public building or sidewalk, we jeopardize the first and most important right of many others, the right to pursue and maintain their healths. Without health, we might pursue wealth and happiness but we would have a mightly slim chance of catching up with them!

We cannot assume rights ourselves, that we refuse to accord to others. We are personally responsible for our actions, be they good or bad. You don't want others to do things that might infect you or yours with disease. Remember that healthy and apparently healthy people, are often carriers of disease germs. So when you have to spit, keep this fact in mind and act accordingly.

Final Production of Endeavors of 1921 to be Given by H. S. Students Tonight

The Alexandria High School is to be congratulated upon having such a promising young author as Miss Mary Asbury. This gifted senior has had several stories accepted by leading publications. Her little comedy "The Chaperon" is cleverly written and was well presented and acted in the H. S. auditorium last night.

The musical touch, without which no play is quite complete was splendid ly given by Miss Margaret Alexander.

Anything written about the senior play would be incomplete without some mention of the class president. Mr. Jack Dinwiddie, who so ably staged it. He has rare talent along this line.

Those who have not yet seen "The Endeavors of 1921" and "The Chaperon" will have a final opportunity to do so this evening.

The proceeds of the performances will go towards defraying the expenses of athletics and other school activities.

T. P. A. Favors Affair to be Held in Richmond Next Year

Roanoke, Va., May 7.—The State convention of the Travelers' Protective Association, in session here unanimously indorsed the historical pageant to be staged at Richmond in May, 1922, to show the principal events in the history of Virginia since the landing at Jamestown. The resolution to back this movement was put before the convention by Hugh P. Powell, State president. In addition, the association went on record as favoring the good roads program as outlined by George P. Coleman, State Highway Commissioner, and the educational program as outlined by Mrs. Harry Semones, State president of the Parent Teachers' Association.

Mr. Coleman told the convention that there were $2,500,000, available for good roads in the State of Virginia, and that all contracts will be let by July 15. He said, with the present rate of speed in building roads in the State, it will take eighteen years to finish the program.

TO VOTE ON TARIFF NEXT WEDNESDAY

Senate Agrees to Limit Speeches to Ten Minutes

BILL IS ATTACKED

Anti-Dumping Provision Extended to Airplanes by Amendment—Attacked by Democrats

Washington, May 7.—The Senate, by unanimous consent, late yesterday fixed next Wednesday for a vote on the Emergency Tariff and Anti-Dumping bill.

Under the same agreement it was decided to limit speeches to 10 minutes for each member on each proposition taken up after noon of that day, when voting on amendments will begin.

The action was taken after half an hour's discussion of the agreement proposed by Senator Penrose, who again urged that desultory debate be eliminated. He proposed first that a limitation of five minutes be placed on the speeches after Wednesday noon. His statements concerning discussion of unrelated subjects brought on exchanges with Senator Reed, Democrat, Missouri, who insisted that Mr. Penrose was using undue haste.

"I intend to make a speech on this bill," said Mr. Reed. "I will do that Monday and then I want opportunity to discuss its amendments as they are taken up, although I do not suppose that my statements will change the vote of a single Senator or have any effect on the country."

"It will not," interrupted Mr. Penrose.

"Nevertheless," Mr. Reed replied. "I want time to discuss this bill," and he persisted until the agreement was changed to allow 10-minute speeches.

Senator Simmons, Democrat, North Carolina, resumed his discussion against the bill begun yesterday, and was followed by Senators Fletcher, of Florida, and Gerry, of Rhode Island, both Democrats, who attacked it from all angles. Mr. Fletcher asserted that Congress was pursuing a wrong policy to enact tariff legislation of any kind under the present disturbed conditions and added that the farmers whom the bill is claimed to aid "will be disillusioned before its six months of life are over."

Mr. Gerry inquired why President Harding did not make his policies "conform," referring to the President's expression of friendship for South and Central America, which he said was out of line with a declaration of a tariff barrier against Canada. The Tariff bill, Mr. Gerry declared, cannot cement closer the ties of the United States and its northern neighbors.

An amendment extending antidumping provisions of the Emergency Tariff bill to the importations of airplanes was introduced by Senator New, Republican, Indiana. Mr. New said that while there was no doubt that the antidumping provisions were "intended" to cover airplanes, he felt the matter to be of sufficient importance to demand specific reference.

Plan Excursion

St. Mary's Sunday School and Parish to go to Marshall Hall June 9

One of the first excursions announced thus far from this city this summer is that which will be given June 9 to Marshall Hayy by St. Mary's Catholic Sunday School and parish combined. Already tickets have been placed on sale and the committee in charge has made all of the necessary arrangements. The steamer Charles McCallister will make several trips on that occasion and the advance sale of tickets indicates that the efforts of the committee will be crowned with success.

First Luncheon

Kiwanians To Be Host Thursday to Washingtonians

Nearly eighty members of the newly organized Kiwanis Club Thursday afternoon attended the first weekly luncheon given by the local club in the Westminster building.

The affair was voted a pronounced success and the members showed considerable interest in the strides already made by this club. The indications are that it will prove one of the most successful clubs in the city.

At the close of the luncheon, George E. Warfield, president of the club, called the assemblage to order and an address was made by Gardner L. Boothe. In addition a number of business matters were also disposed of after the speech making.

Announcement was made that the local club May 19 will entertain the members of the Washington Kiwanis Club in this city at which time it is expected that more than 100 from Washington will attend.

The local Kiwanians expect to make this affair a gala event and genuine old time Virginia hospitality will be in order.

China's Sufferers

There is famine in China!

Failure of rain resulting in severe drought ruined three successive crops, and there were left only trees weeds, chaff and straw with which to prolong life.

In five great provinces 5,000,000 persons still are destitute and have no hope of food except as America provides money, and these 5,000,000 we must save until the middle of June or relief will be too late for many, and those not strengthened will be unable to reap their spring harvest and support themselves.

No American is so poor that he cannot save a life at the lowest rate ever quoted—3 cents a day or one dollar a month.

The distance is great and the disaster is tragic—but the solution is simple.

Send your contribution to the local committee for China Famine Fund, your church, your bank, or to Vernon Munroe, treasurer, Bible House, New York City.

FIGHT PROMISED FOR ENGINE HOUSE

Contest Between Veterans of Foreign Wars and Ex-Firemen

COUNCIL TO DECIDE

Russell Mitchell Post and Relief Truck Company Seek Headquarters at Friendship House.

What promise to be an interesting fight for the possession of the historic old Friendship fire engine house now controlled by the City Council and the Friendship Veterans Fire Association is looming between the members of Russell Mitchell Post No. 609, Veterans of Foreign Wars and the members of the former volunteer firemen of the Reliance Fire Company No. 5. The fight undoubtedly will be waged on the floor of council and the outcome is awaited with considerable interest.

To begin with on April 26 the members of Russell Mitchell Post petitioned city council to assist them in obtaining possession of the Friendship engine house. They explained in their letter that they desired to open the house for visitors and charge an admission fee and use the funds derived therefrom for the relief fund and the upkeep of the building.

The Reliance Fire Company at a meeting held last Thursday night, as stated in The Gazette last night, decided to join the Friendship Veterans Fire Association and expect to have quarters at that company's house. I also was stated by one of the former volunteers that they expected some of the former members of the Relief Truck Company to also join them in becoming identified with this association.

The following is a copy of the letter submitted to city council by the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

April 25, 1921.

City Council,
Alexandria, Va.
Gentlemen:

We, the members of Russell Mitchell Post No. 609 Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States, do hereby respectfully solicit your assistance in obtaining the Friendship Engine House on South Alfred Street for the following purposes:

First—We desire to assist all needy ex-service men and their families financially and otherwise and in order to do this we need a good sum of money. this we do not care to beg, for it would appear as charity to those we help. We cannot let our heroes be thrown on charity. And for this reason we desire to have the authority to open this Historic House to visitors and by charging admission we can make money for this relief fund and for the upkeep of the building. This relief fund is for the assistance of all ex-service men and their families of any war of the United States, either home or foreign service. We do not discriminate.

Second—We desire to secure a home of our own and would like to have the upper rooms as a meeting place.

We agree to make the necessary improvements for the upkeep of the property if admission fee will allow it, we also agree to fence off at least five feet from the relics so that they will not be handled by the visitors.

This historic house as a sightseeing place for tourists will be in charge of an ex-service man who will be responsible to a committee appointed by this post. This committee to make detail monthly reports to our Adjutant (secretary) and Quartermaster (treasurer) and any person or persons designated by your Council. This report will not be for publication as we do not publish the names of those we assist.

We feel that you will assist us in helping our comrades who are less fortunate than we.

HOWARD L. ARNOLD, Com.
ALBERT A. MAY, Adjutant.

HARDING NAMES 3 TO REPRESENT U.S.

Harvey Will Act For President in Supreme Council

AVOID ENTANGLEMENT

Policy of "Absention" From European Affairs Emphasized — America Sounded Out Before Invitation Ext

Washington, May 7.—Acceptance in full of the invitation of Premier Lloyd George that the United States Government be represented at the sittings of the Supreme Council, the Council of Ambassadors and the Reparations Commission was made by President Harding yesterday.

The invitation was accepted after close conferences between President Harding and Secretary of State Hughes, and a full discussion of the overtures by the President's official family at the Cabinet meeting today, which was given over almost wholly to a consideration of world relationships.

In the reply, which was communicated to Sir Auckland Geddes, the British Ambassador, by Secretary Hughes yesterday, it was stated, in accepting the invitation, that Colonel George Harvey would be instructed on his arrival in England to take part in the deliberations of the Supreme Council as the representative of President Harding; that Ambassador Wallace would be instructed to resume his place as "unofficial observer" on the Ambassadors until relieved by Myron T. Herrick, and that Roland W. Boyden would be instructed to sit again in an "unofficial capacity" on the Reparations Commission.

Some surprise was occasioned in various official circles, especially to some members of Congress, that the representation on the Supreme Council would be of a more definite "official" character than on the other bodies. The view held earlier was, generally that representation would be accorded by this government as a result of the invitation, but it was conjectured that the "official" representation would be on the Reparations Commission.

The view of the administration is that the action taken is one which indicates complete abstention from exclusively European affairs. The difficulties attendant upon the state of affairs which had preceded, with this government unrepresented in the important international bodies concerned, has long been recognized. Today's action, it is held ,largely removes these difficulties.

The nature of the reply precludes the necessity of resorting to Congress for formal approval. Not sure that he had the right to go further than the appointment of "advisers", President Harding stopped at that point. As such their participation, whether, as in the case of Ambassador Harvey, as a distinctly designated representative of the President, or as mere unofficial observers, as in the case with Ambassador Wallace and Mr. Boyden, is held to avoid the possibilities of objectionable involvements in world affairs, or a suggestion of entanglement in a "world league."

It can be authoritatively stated that conclusions arrived at as a result of participation by these representatives in the conferences to which they have been designated, can be in no way binding, unless this government makes them binding. In any and all cases it is left with the United States Government to settle the questions that come up.

The official participation of Ambassador Harvey in the deliberations of the Supreme Council presents no complications, as it is quite within the rights and power of the President to so appoint him. Yet Harvey will simply have part in the deliberations in behalf of the President, who has charge of foreign affairs for this government.

The character of the several organizations concerned bears an important relation to the nature of the appointments. The Supreme Council is not a formally constituted body. It is simply a conference of the heads of the

The Wake of the Lusitania.

Six years ago today the Lusitania was sunk and a chill of horror went around the civilized world. More than a thousand men, women and children, many of them American citizens, were sent to a watery grave in plain violation of all international law, when the great peaceful liner was torpedoed off the coast of Ireland by a German submarine. There is no need now of repeating the harrowing details of that awful sea tragedy; they are indelibly stamped like a nightmare upon the memory of the American people; one has only to mention the "Lusitania,' no more is needed.

What a vain and empty little victory it was for Germany! And how she paid for it and is still paying! The balance of power of public opinion in the United States definitely turned against her the day after the sinking and gathering momentum from that day forward finally swept this country into the great maelstrom of the World War.

And there seems to be a strange coincidence in the fact that the United States Government has today decided, if reliable reports are to be accepted, to send representatives to and take part in the Interallied Council and the Reparations Commission of the Allied powers, thereby definitely aligning itself once more against the nation that sank the Lusitania.

America has many times over avenged the sinking of her nationals on the Lusitania on the blood-soaked fields of France. She is remembering the event today and she cannot forget it. There was a long wake to that doomed ship and the ripples of it are still upon the face of the waters of time.

Treason in the Ranks.

Far be it from us to inject dissension into the blissfully harmonious ranks of the G. O. P. faithful gathered around the pie-counter. And yet we feel duty bounden to comment on the magnificent outburst of indignation to which we were treated the other day on the floor of the House of Representatives by a Republican from the great state of Illinois.

Rising to demand that all the postmasterships in the country be made immediately available for appointment of "loyal and true workers of the party," Representative Williams exclaimed, "Why, they are talking about civil service examinations for postmasters! My opinion is that if the President had insisted on all his Cabinet officers taking the examination they are giving postmaster applicants, nobody but Hughes and Hoover would have qualified." Then in a final blaze of glorious rhetoric, the Congressman blared forth, "History will record that Roosevelt had his Cortelyou, that Taft had his Hitchcock, that Wilson had his Burleson and I hope—well I don't wish to be disrespectful, but I hope that our great President Harding will be properly served by his Postmaster General."

Now we submit that mere Democrats have a right to smile when thus early in the game squeaks like this begin to develop in the great machine of Mr. Will Hays.

PRELATES TO CONFER ON IRELAND, IS REPORT

London, May 7.—The Evening Standard last night reports that a momentous Irish peace conference has been arranged to take place in London next week, under the auspices of distinguished English ecclesiastics.

Representatives of both the English and Irish hierarchies will attend, as also will two leaders of the Sinn Fein. One of these is believed to be Eamon De Valera, is due to reach London tomorrow morning, according to the paper.

Lord Talbot, the new Irish viceroy, was closeted with Prime Minister Lloyd George today, but nothing was given out of the nature of the conference.

The Dublin correspondent of the Central News says that well informed Sinn Fein circles in Dublin know nothing about this conference. The correspondent was assured that De Valera was not likely to leave Ireland for such a purpose.

The amusement in these two games will be one of the highest quality, and Baggett's field Sunday is the place for all loyal fans as well as others who have an interest in home athletics. The line up for the Keystones is as follows: Greenberg, first base; S. Higbee, S. S.; Da Grossa, c.; Sharp, c. f.; Cummings, 3rd base; E. Higbee, 2nd base; Ellis, r. f.; Nathan, l. f.; Pharazyn, p.; Subs, Gibson, Clark, Benson and Benton, while the "D's" will have Dreifus, 1st base; Williams, s. s.; Heitmueller and Mooney, catchers; Alexander, Snead and Jones as pitchers, Degman and Devers on the other bases, while Ludlow, Giles, Frazer, Dawson and Hayden will be seen in positions in th outfield.

Be with the crowd at Baggett's field at 1:45 p. m., Sunday.

Indian Woman Wins Title to $1,500,000 Tulsa Suburb

Tulsa, Okla., May 7.—Judge Owen yesterday ruled in favor of Mary Patrtridge, an Indian woman, in her suit to recover Crosbie Heights, an exclusive Tulsa residential quarter. More than 100 property owners were defendants in the suit, in which $1,500,000 was involved.

Attorneys for the Indian woman contended that her restrictions as a Government ward had not been removed when she conveyed the title to the land to J. E. Crosbie in 1908, and that the title, therefore, was invalid.

Counsel for Crosbie said the case would be appealed.

"BACK—BACK TO ALALAM" SINGS NEGRO WITH $50,000

Chicago, May 7.—Old Dave Lacey, with a battered valise in his right hand, a bank draft for $50,000 pinned in his vest pocket, bade good by to Chicago today.

"Man, man, this is a mem'able day for old Dave," he said. "I been up here in the No'th so long I almos' forgot the sweet, chestnut taste of roast possum. And, oh, how my mouf waters for some fried catfish."

Then Old Dave, rather neat on his feet for 74, clambered aboard the train for Montgomery, Ala. He said he'd buy a farm for his sister and spend the rest of his time fishing and hunting and soaking up the same sunshine that warmed his legs when he was a pickaninny.

Dave came to Chicago in 1880 penniless, and imagined Montgomery was the biggest city in the world. He became a barber at the Hyde Park Hotel, and numbered among his patrons hundreds of prominent Chicagoans. Old Dave prospered and became teh owner of the shop.

BIRTH RATE IN VA.

Number of Deaths Much Smaller as Compared With 1919-1920

Richmond, Va., May 7.—Births in Virginia and Richmond for the first three months of 1921 show a large increase as compared with similar periods of the last two years, according to figures just compiled by the Bureau of Vital Statistics, and made public yesterday. Deaths during that same period show a decrease, the figures reveal.

During January, February and March of this year, the figures show, there were 15,838 births, as compared with 15,148 for the corresponding period of last year, and 13,310 in 1919. March showed an unusually large increase, the total being 6,000 which is about 1,000 larger than the average.

In Richmond alone, the total number of births for 1921 was 1,039, while in 1920, it amounted to 1,055 and the years previous 796.

The number of deaths in the State during the last three years has dropped almost 3,000, as in 1919 the total was 10,639; in 1920 it was 9,858, while this year it was 7,194.

The decrease in the death rate in Richmond for this period is nearly 200. This year the total was 673, while last year it was 880, and in 1919 it amounted to 834.

How Do You Feel When You Stoop?

Slow and sluggish movements, tired action, backache, rheumatic pains, stiff joints or sore muscles indicate that something in the human system is out of order. In most cases, these symptoms are the result of waste matter or poisonous acids being left in the blood by the failure of the kidneys to properly do their work of filtering and casting out impurities from the blood.

STOPPED HIS BACKACHE

"I am 70 years old. I tried Foley Kidney Pills, thinking I needed them—as my back was hurting and aching all the time. I got so bad that when I would stoop over in the store while at work I could hardly raise up—such an awful ache in my back. After taking just one bottle of Foley Kidney Pills, my backache was entirely gone and I felt good and strong. I think they are the greatest remedy for backache and irregularities of the bladder."—W. P. Tatum, R. F. D. 1, Washington, Pa.

FOLEY KIDNEY PILLS

have been used by young, middle-aged and old with complete satisfaction. You will find them different from all other remedies. They act quickly and surely and have given relief in cases of years' standing. If you have cause to suspect your kidneys are weak, disordered or inactive, you should act immediately.

Tells War Experience

Capt. Jansen of Theological Seminary Addresses American Legion

Capt. Jansen, of the Canadian Black Watch Regiment, last night gave a thrilling account of his experiences overseas as a member of that regiment before a largely attended meeting of Alexandria Post No. 24, American Legion last night.

His description of the battle of Ypres was especially interesting.

Capt. Jansen is now a student at the Episcopal Theological Seminary and he was accompanied to the meeting by Maj. Henry P. Sanborn, who also is a student the Episcopal Theological Seminary.

In addition to transacting considerable business of a routine nature the post also indorsed the action of the Parent-Teachers' Association in recommending the retention of Mrs. Olive Jones Whitmer in this city.

COLONEL J. A. PALMER ON PERSHINGS NEW STAFF

Washington, May 7.—The first step towards organization of the new general headquarters staff of the Army, to be headed by General Pershing, was made today when orders went to Colonel John McA. Palmer to report to General Pershing for duty as a member of his staff.

It is understood he will act as an aministrative assistant to General Pershing, and his chief of staff, Brigadier General Fox Conner, in organizing the new general headquarters of war staff.

SAYS "MILLIONAIRE HOBO" IS HER LONG LOST DADDY

Chicago, May 7.—James Eads Howe, known as "the millionaire hobo," today became the central figure in a domestic mystery.

Chief of Detective Michael Hughes received a letter today from Mrs. Amy Jagan, of Thompson, Ia., who declared she believed herself Howe's daughter. She asked the aid of the police in locating Howe.

Mrs. Jagan said her father's name was James Eads Howell, and that she had been unable to get trace of him since she was a little girl, when he disappeared.

WILSON SILENT ON PLAN TO RENEW RELATIONS WITH EUROPE

Washington, May 7.—Former President Woodrow Wilson was informed by friends late yesterday afternoon of President Harding's decision to resume American relationship with the peace settlement commissions of Europe.

Mr. Wilson, however, volunteered no comment upon this new and interesting development in the foreign policies of the Harding Administration.

Note to British Ambassador Answering Council's Invitation

The Government of the United States has received through the British Ambassador the courteous communication in which you state that with the unanimous concurrence of the powers represented at the Allied conference in London, you are to inquire whether this Government is disposed to be represented in the future, as it was in the past, at the Allied conference, at the conferences of Ambassadors in Paris and on the

Injunction Against Picketing Issued

Baltimore, May 7.—Judge John C. Rose, of the United States District Court, yesterday issued an injunction to prevent marine strikers from picketing in large numbers or intimidating or forcibly detaining men who wish to join crews on vessels of the Baltimore Steamship Company, which operates United States Shipping Board vessels only. The marine engineers were not included in the injunction, but were told that if overt acts by them were reported a similar injunction would be issued to control them.

IN MEMORIAM

DIXON—In loving remembrance of our dear mother, LUCY ANN DIXON, who passed away eighteen years ago, May 8, 1903.

What is home without a mother?
All things the world may send,
When we lost our mother
We lost our dearest friend.
She wore a crown of patience,
Though the years she struggled on,
Those hands that rest forever
Were the hands that made our home.
I often sit and think of you
When I am all alone,
For memory is the only friend
That grief can call its own.
The golden gates were open,
A gentle voice said come,
And with farewell unspoken
She calmly entered home.

Hundreds Join in Search For Marion Butterworth

Rutland, Vt., May 7.—Hundreds of men and women, Boy Scouts, police officials and civic organizations have combined to search the countryside for Miss Marion Butterworth, Boston University graduate and social secretary to Miss Emily Proctor daughter of the late United States Senator Redfield Proctor, who disappeared mysteriously Tuesday night.

Miss Butterworth was a young woman of exceptional intellect and ability, and friends fear that she may have suffered a mental breakdown.

Petersburg Storekeeper Held on Charge of Arson

Petersburg, May 7.—On the charge of attempting to burn his grocery store in order to collect the insurance, J. T. Allen, colored shopkeeper, was arraigned in Police Court here yesterday and held for grand jury investigation. He was released on bail.

Allen had his stock insured for $1,000, while fire department officials say he had only about $400 worth of goods in the store. The small blaze was quickly extinguished and the fire men say they found several boxes of loose paper, in which matches were scattered under the counter where the fire started. Allen was arrested several days ago at the instigation of a State official, who investigated the blaze.

Schurman Minister To China, is Report

Washington, May 7.—Dr. Jacob Goud Schurman, of Ithaca, N. Y., former president of Cornell University and former Minister to Greece and Montenegro, is understood to have ben chosen by President Harding for American Minister to China.

Official inquiries regarding the acceptability of Dr. Schurman are yet to be made at Peking, but it is taken for granted here that the selection will meet the approval of the Chinese Government and that Dr. Schurman's name will be sent to the Senate in the near future. Dr. Schurman for many years has been an authority on international law and economics. He was traveled extensively and in 1890 was president of the first United States Philippine Commission. He was first vice-president of the New York State Constitutional Convention in 1915. His services as Minister to Greece and Montenegro occurred during 1912-13.

BANS USE OF POWDER AND PAINT TO TEACHERS

New Bedford, Mass., May 7.—The use of cosmetics by teachers in the public schools was forbidden in an order issued yesterday by Superintendent Allen P. Keith. Explaining it, he said:

"Teachers must have clean faces. Children coming to school with dirty faces are sent home to wash them. I believe the same rule should be applied to teachers who use powder and paint."

The order also decries shortened skirts, but left their length to the teachers' discretion.

GOTHAMS FOREIGN BORN SHOW SLIGHT INCREASE

Washington, May 7.—New York City's foreign born white population showed slight increase in numbers and went down in its ratio to total population, according to 1920 census figures made public today. The increase in numbers for the last decade was less than one tenth of that for the previous ten years, and the percentage, compared to total population, dropped from 40.4 to 34.4.

The actual numerical increase was 61,613, bringing the city's total foreign born to 1,989,216. In 1910, an increase of about 660,000 was recorded for the previous ten years.

Russia continue to lead as the country of birth of New York City's foreign born with 479,481. There was an apparent decrease of 4,708 of those listed as born in Russia, compared with ten years ago.

WIDOW SHOOTS SELF

Trenton, N. J., May 7.—Brooding over the death of her mother last August, Mrs. Anna Covert, 40 years old, a widow, of 95 Carroll street, shot herself in the head today. The bullet was later removed from the base of her skull at McKinley Hospital, and it was said that the woman has a fair chance for recovery.

Mrs. Covert is the widow of Elmer H. Covert, a Trenton clothing merchant, who died about ten years ago. She resides with her father, who said he did not know there was a revolver in the house. He believes she purchased the weapon for the purpose of killing herself.

Auto Plunges Through Bridge into Stream

Norfolk, Va., May 7.—Blinded by the bright lights of another car which was approaching, the taxicab driven by Charles McPherson, early yesterday plunged though the railing on the Riverview Bridge into fifteen feet of water.

McPherson, who was the only person in the car, broke his way out of the car as it was sinking by kicking the glass out of the door and swam ashore. He was picked up and brought to the city, little worse for his experience, by another automobile.

Memorial Services for M. E. Elder

Nashville, Tenn., May 7.—Following memorial services yesterday by the board of missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in session here, for Dr. Thomas E. Sharp, presiding elder of the Memphis district, who died suddenly at a local hotel last night, the remains were taken to Memphis for burial. Several members of the board accompanied the body.

Announce for House of Delegates

Lynchburg, Va., May 7.—C. J. Campbell, formerly judge of the Amherst County Court, has announced his candidacy for nomination for the House of Delegates, from that county, M. P. Gatewood, the incumbent, had previously announced his candidacy to succeed himself.

Reparations commission.

The Government of the United States while maintaining the traditional policy of abstention from participation in matters of distinctly European concern, is deeply interested in the proper economic adjustment and in the just settlement of the matters of world wide importance which are under discussion in the conferences, and desires helpfully to co-operate in the deliberation upon these questions.

Mr. George Harvey, appointed Ambassador to Great Britain, will be instructed on his arrival in England to take part, as the representative of the President of the United States, in the deliberations of the Supreme Council. The American Ambassador to France will be instructed to resume his place as unofficial observer at the conferences of Ambassadors, and Mr. Roland W. Boyden will be instructed to sit again in an unofficial capacity on the Reparations Committee.

The Government of the United States notes with pleasure your expression of the belief of the representatives of the Allied governments assembled in London, that American co-operation in the settlement of the great international question growing out of the World War will be of material assistance.

governments, originally constituted to function to meet the exigencies of the war. Since the war it has continued to deal with matters arising out of the war, but its members are bound only by the instructions of their respective governments. The Council of Ambassadors is another informal body. Ambassador Wallace merely resumes the position previously held by him as an unofficial observer. He will be replaced by Ambassador Herrick when the latter arrives in Paris.

The Reparations Commission, falls into a category distinct from the other two, being an organization set up and functioning under the Treaty. This commission touches almost every phase of the economic life of Europe, and in so doing, affects the economic interests of this country. Boyden, who resumes his former position in an unofficial capacity, is a Boston lawyer and a Republican. He is held by the administration to have great ability and eminent fitness for the position, through a broad knowledge of all the questions involved and the possession of the American viewpoint in every particular.

There is the general conviction that the steps taken today by the administration were not without the full knowledge and approval of leading members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, reached through recent conferences with Senator Lodge and others. The belief is equally strong that this government had been sounded out by the Allied governments before the invitation was extended and that they were practically assured in advance that the overtures would be acceptable. It is considered significant that the invitation, so promptly answered, is practically timed with the expected arrival of Ambassador Harvey in England.

MOVIES

KAZAN AND JANE NOVAK AT RICHMOND.

Managers Steele and Reed of the Richmond Theatre, have booked a winner for Monday and Tuesday of next week.

Real wolves, lynx, coyotes, malemute dogs and other creatures of the Canadian wilds are among the actors to be seen with the human members of the cast of "Kazan," adapted from James Oliver Curwood's story of the same name by Bertram Bracken. The leading feminine role is played by Jane Novak. "Kazan" is an intensely fascinating story of love and adventure of the great north country. Its intimate glimpses into the lives of the creatures of the wilds are said to constitute one of the marvels of motion picture producton.

One of the most thrilling scenes in "Kazan" is the race for life of a man and woman with a dog team over the snows of a Canadian woodland and their subsequent battle with a pack of wolves. Kazan, a wolf-dog, heads this pack, and when he recognizes a woman who has befriended him he turns on his companions and scatters them. In this fight all the pack dogs are killed, together with several of the attacking wolves.

This picture has met with huge approval everywhere.

INGOMAR THEATRE

Dorothy Gish in the great horse race play, "Atta Boy's Last Race" is the attraction at the Ingomar Theatre Monday. Also Chapter 4 of Ruth Roland's new and thrilling serial. "The Avenging Arrow." The Ingomar program for next week is an attractive one, including the following popular stars, William Fairbanks, Bessie Love, Roy Stewart, Carmel Myers and Lester Cuneo.

JACK DEMPSEY AT IDLE HOUR MONDAY

In addition to the regular classy show, Manager Cohen, of the Idle Hour Theatre, announces the starting of the million dollar serial, "Dare devil Jack" featuring the greatest boxer in the world today Jack Dempsey. In view of the coming international bout between Dempsey and Carpentier, of France, the champion of Europe this booking is a timely one. Jack is now in Atlantic City, training for the bout to be held in Jersey City in July. Dempsey is said to be the hardest hitter, in addition to being extremely clever, in the list of heavy weights today. Carpentier is no slouch when it comes to hitting and is extremely fast. Jack is also some actor and in this picture he has an opportunity to show some of the action for which he is famous and the movie goers of the city have the opportunity to see this famous athlete in action.

THE UNIVERSITY OF HUMANITY

Diplomas Awarded Men and Women Who Qualify in This Unique Institution.

The four training colleges in The United States, of which two are in Chicago and two in New York City, conducted by The Salvation Army, specializes in the science of art, of understanding and handling people.

Two of these in each city are devoted to the instruction of women.

In addition to the vast fund of general experience which the workers in the Salvation Army have acquired through a forty years apprenticeship at serving men and women in every possible phase and emergency of crime, sorrow and misfortune, it adds to its marvelous efficiency in handing down these traditions by giving to every man and woman who consecrates his and her life to this work, a university course of ten months intensive study.

Besides the evangelical side of this instruction, which prepares the student to conduct all kinds of meetings they also must learn much of the training that pioneer missionaries need to maintain themselves in a variety of surroundings, establish a home, a meeting place or corps from which their activities will radiate and around which they will draw for all kinds of spiritual and temporal relief, the people of their community.

Officers who receive a commission in the Salvation Army must be skilled in saving men just as the officers of our military armies of the world are trained in destroying men. Their training for life of men-saving is just as complex and diversified. Indeed the men's training colleges of the Salvation Army have been called its 'West Point.'

Fully as comprehensive is the instruction given to the young women who register for this work. They must learn domestic science, sewing, nursing, as well as the religious side, for there is no demand made upon officers in this great army that is not met by them in the intelligent capable manner of the expert.

After the ten months in the college has been completed the young officer must serve a year's probationary training under some elder officer. During that period he has regular monthly examinations which he must pass according to a required standard before he is ordained for service and commissioned and sent forth to establish his own field.

A day's program in a Salvation Army College is fully as rigorous and exacting as that of any military institution.

THE PROPER COURSE

Information of Priceless Value to Every Alexandria Citizen

How to act in an emergency is knowledge of inestimable worth, and this is particularly true of the diseases and ills of the human body. If you suffer with kidney backache, urinary disorders, or any form of kidney trouble, the advice contained in the following statement should add a valuable asset to your store of knowledge. What could be more convincing proof of the efficiency of Doan's Kidney Pills than the statement of a Alexandria citizen who used them and who publicly tells of the benefit derived?

Guy Pettit, railroad engineer, 114 Commerce St., Alexandria, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for a number of years and they have done me so much good I wouldn't be without them. I usually carry a box of Doan's with me because my kidneys are apt to get out of order. This is from the jarring of the engine. However I only have to use a few of Doan's Kidney Pills and I am not bothered any more."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Pettit had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

MOTHER HANGS HERSELF IN SIGHT OF LIBERTY

New York, May 7.—After toiling for months in poverty stricken Hungary to gather passage money to America for herself and two children Mrs. Catherine Idijevic yesterday hanged herself on the liner Finland, at the very door of her goal.

Her ambition to have the children become Americans may not be realized, however, for they probably will be deported lest they become public charges.

ANTI SUICIDE BUREAU.

For the past thirteen years The Salvation Army has waged an active war against suicide.

The Anti Suicide Bureau was established in London when the great suicidal mania swept through England and in a few months this little refuge for the desperate and life weary—had raised 1125 men and 90 women.

From that time on the Salvation Army has found a definite field of work in supplying the friendless with friends, the heart-broken with comfort, the bewildered and helpless with a guide, those hysterically maddened by folly with a calming influence that would steady them.

Overwork, ill health, disappointment in love, infidelity of husband or wife, sudden bereavement, drink, drugs and crime as well as mental weakness and melancholia are many of the numerous causes that lead people to think seriously upon exterminating life.

Four-fifths of the people with melancholia have suicidal tendencies and two-thirds of them actually attempt it.

It is a curious fact that it is seldom among the underworld or lower classes that suicide is frequent, but is mainly among clergymen, doctors, actors, financiers, journalists, politicians, chemists, architects, schoolmasters, bank clerks, and tradesmen.

MOTHER HANGS HERSELF IN SIGHT OF LIBERTY

New York, May 7.—After toiling for months in poverty stricken Hungary to gather passage money to America for herself and two children Mrs. Catherine Idijevic yesterday hanged herself on the liner Finland, at the very door of her goal.

Her ambition to have the children become Americans may not be realized, however, for they probably will be deported lest they become public charges.

KEEPING HOUSE WITH YOUR FINGERS

(By Leila M. Taylor)

When the wily butcher, or the discreet grocer, or the crafty vegetable man tucks away some boney steak or doubtful flour or weary lettuce into the corner of your market basket, and you detect it upon the homeward track, pause and consider for a moment just what it would mean if you had not sharp eyes with which to do your daily marketing.

Yet there are hundreds of housekeepers throughout the country who must do all their marketing without eyes, and, in fact, do it, and cook and sew and clean house wash and iron —all without the faculty which the ordinary housekeeper considers indispensable.

This seems incredible enough but when the same housekeeper is, in addition, a business woman, who makes the daily pilgrimage to her place of employment every day, with the rest of the nine o'clock world, it becomes even less credible.

Any woman worker at the New York Lighthouse for the Blind, at 111 East Fifty-ninth street, however, can answer all your doubts. Here the majority of the women workers engaged in basket making, weaving, sewing and music teaching, are all housekepers.

How do they manage it? It's the easiest thing in the world, the blind housekeeper will tell you. In the morning the first thing she does is to get her husband's breakfast. She doesn't time what she cooks, she admits, but from all reports there is no kick coming from the husband. All her cooking is generally done by gas, and in order to avert accidents, the blind housekeeper always places the pot first on the burner, then lights it.

It the question of marketing, she finds no more difficulty than in anything else. To a sighted person, it might seem that confusion would arise for the blind in money expenditure. To avoid this, lighthouse workers are paid always in nickels, quarters, half-dollars, and one dollar bills. The dime is omitted as it might too easily be mistaken for the cent. She is equally able to cope with such problems as home sewing, and mending, and in many households, where all other members of the family have normal eyes, it is the blind member who is voted the best washer and ironer.

At the New York Lighthouse for the Blind, which was founded fifteen years ago by Miss Winifred Holt, and which has since been the development of seven other lighthouses established for the blind in this country, France and Italy, blind women are taught household arts free of charge, and in addition, are paid for their handicraft, while learning. The Commitee for Lighthouses for the Blind, which is in charge of this work, is now carrying on a campaign for $2,000,000 in order to continue and enlarge this work, among the blind here and abroad. President Harding, at his recent visit to the New York Lighthouse, accepted the Honorary Chairmanship of the campaign, and Franklin D. Roosevelt is chairman, Andrew D. Mellon, Secretary of the Treasury, is Honorary Treasurer, 111 East Fifty-Ninth St., New York City.

STILLMAN CASE EXPOSE STIRS BUFFALO WOMEN

Buffalo, N. Y., May 7.—Testimony of Dr. Hugh Russell, osteopath, of Buffalo, that Mrs. Stillman had told him that the father of her unborn child was Fred Beauvais, Canadian guide, created a sensation among women of Buffalo's smart set who have been treated by Dr. Russell. The fact that he delved deeply into their personal affairs seemed to the patients to be but professional thoroughness until Dr. Russell testified at the Stillman hearing and gave information given to him by a patient

It is reported that some Buffalo women in the fashionable Upper West Side, where most of Dr. Russell's patients live, are nearly hysterical over the revelation.

Today it was said on the highest authority that the Erie County Medical Society would demand an investigation of Dr. Russell's actions. Dr. John D. Bonar, chairman of the board of censors, refused to comment but admitted that some sort of an investigation was already under way.

First Distribution of Trees Made by State Forester at U. of Va.

Charlottesville, Va., May 7.—The first distribution of small forest trees from the Virginia State Forest Nursery has just been completed according to a statement today by Chapin Jones, state forester. During March and April eight thousand and one hundred small trees were distributed to public institutions and individuals in Virginia by the State Foresters office at the University of Virginia.

The trees were grown at the nursery situated just west of Charlottesville, on the "Ivy" state road. They were distributed at low cost for the purposes of stimulating reforestation, and were of the species and sizes that the forestry department believes best adapted for forest planting. They were principally white pines, and short leaf pines with a few loblolly pines and Norway spruces, and were mostly very small in size, averaging only six or eight inches in height. Many of them were asked for, for use in beautifying the grounds of public schools and other state institutions.

Twenty public institutions and twelve individual landowners participated in this first distribution from the State Forest Nursery. State Forester Jones today expressed himself as being well pleased at the number of applications received for the planting stock. He attributes the demand to the fact that trees of the very small sized required and of the best species for forest planting are not grown as yet by the commercial nurseries in Virginia and quarantines for the control of plant diseases prevent their importation from the Northeastern states.

Mr. Jones anticipates that the number of applications for small forest trees will steadily increase as it becomes more widely known that they are available to landowners.

PITTSBURGH'S HOUSING SHORTAGE TO BE RELIEVED

Pittsburgh, May 7.—At least 1,000 and probably several thousand dwelling houses will be erected in Pittsburgh this year by a housing corporation. Carefully worked out plans of the corporation, as submitted by the special committee on housing named by the Chamber of Commerce, were approved yesterday by the chamber's board of directors.

"The incorporation papers are already in Harrisburg, all financial plans are arranged and we certainly will build at least 1,000 houses this year," declared Chairman Thompson. "We are calling on prospective owners to put up only 2 per cent of the cost as a starter. The corporation will operate without profit and the officers will draw no pay. We intend to rush building operations and to keep at high speed until Pittsburgh's housing shortage is made up. We believe we will build several thousand houses.

TELLS CHICAGO POLICE TO ENFORCE CURFEW

Chicago, May 7.—Chicago may have a curfew after all. It depends on what the police do when they are instructed to enforce an ordinance "to the best of their ability."

City aldermen, indignant at the reported intention of Chief of Police Fitz Morris to ignore the new ordinance, which went into effect at 10 o'clock last night, delivered a protest of such vigor that the chief had a change of heart.

"I will tell my men to enforce it to the best of their ability I never had any intention of ignoring it, but merely pointed out some of the difficulties of carrying it out," the chief said today.

House Determined to Speed up Army Reduction

Washington, May 7.—The House showed its determination today to speed up reduction of the size of the army to 150,000 men by agreeing to an amendment to the army appropriation bill designed to facilitate the discharge of enlisted men.

The House also approved another amendment offered by Mr. Hull to discontinue payment of a $60 bonus to soldiers who re-enlist.

YOUNG WOMEN'S BOARDING HOMES

Chain of 29 Social Welfare Stations Provide Home Comforts for Employed Girls.

The Salvation Army has established a chain of 29 boarding homes through the country to provide the girls employed in mills, factories and department stores with good wholesome living conditions at small cost. All of the social amenities of the family are provided.

There are a great number of young women who are deprived of these pleasures for many causes. Eminently respectable and self-supporting though they are, the average earnings in the positions which they occupy are not sufficient to meet their needs if the ordinary methods of living are followed.

With this need before them The Salvation Army met the problem by opening up comfortable and attractive boarding houses in the larger cities that have the home atmosphere introduced and maintained through the presence and supervision of the Salvation Army Matron, who is also a trained nurse and always the kind, loving friend to whom the girls may go with any problem at any time.

The facilities for music, and reading, the privilege of taking care of their own clothes in the laundry and the use of the electric iron to do their pressing, a sewing machine to facilitate their dressmaking and an attractive place where they may receive their young men and women friends, all combine to make these Homes popular and keep them filled to the limit of their capacity.

These are entirely self supporting, though the charge to the girls is far below what they would be required to pay in the average city boarding house.

The very splendid cheery Christian Home in Chicago accommodated 140 girls, at a charge of from $3.50 upward per week for steam heated, outside rooms, with hot and cold water, electric light, use of parlor, laundry and electrical irons and three good meals a day. These prices are about the same in all of the 29 other homes in the United States.

These establishments are simply furnished with an eye to practical comfort rather than showiness and the snowy linens, shining floors and wholesome meals together with the good cheer and safety with which the girls are surrounded, has made for them all a long list of waiting applicants.

In the cheeriest, sun parlor of one of these a brilliant literary woman, now hopelessly crippled through a railway accident, is passing serene and happy days, the pet of the household. Her paper looks out for her monthly rental and she is lavishing all of the love of a lone, friendless shut-in upon the matron and the girls of the Home who brighten her dreary life all they can.

SALVATION ARMY CHRISTMAS DINNERS.

Picture Christmas to children with NONE of the joys which the world at large is accustomed to associate with this holiday season.

Picture dismal, poverty stricken homes, cold, cheerless, desolate, no fire, little or no food, no toys, no trees, in short, none of the things that are the birthright of all children. It is to such as these The Salvation Army annually plays Santa Claus, in a constantly increasing volume of numbers, in all of the towns where the Salvation Army has corps.

So much a Yuletide institution has The Salvation Army Christmas Relief become, that in many cities the citizens begin to look and ask for Santa Claus Chimneys and Kettles to be set up on the corners when Christmas shopping starts in earnest.

This voluntary donation of the passerby is the only street solicitation made by the Army during the year, and the funds thus collected go into buying the food for family baskets and toys for the children.

If you ever packed one Thanksgiving or Christmas basket for a poor family, you can appreciate the spirit of love that superintends the packing of the thousands that go out from The Salvation Army each year to the needy.

It is to the needy that they are sent, for when a name is sent in or a person applies for a Christmas basket, a Salvation Army worker pays a visit to that home and makes a report on the conditions, and upon that report rests the decision as to the sending of the basket.

Throughout the United States last year, 201,750 families received Christmas baskets, and 71,324 children's hearts were made glad with gifts or toys; while 16,466 received Thanksgiving baskets. In Maryland, last year 2,475 baskets were distributed and 2,300 children were given toys.

The baskets contain a bountiful meal for a family of five or six, and last year contain a baking chicken, celery, can tomatoes, corn meal, turnips, potatoes, onions, apples, coffee, sugar, bread and butter.

COME IN! THE WATER'S FINE

SLUM KIDDIES ON A SALVATION ARMY SUMMER OUTING!

Thousands of them get a wonderful day of joy and frolic when the Salvation Army says, "Let's go!" and the good ship "Better Health" steams out of Baltimore Harbor bound for any of the nearby river resorts, where wading and swimming, eating picnic lunches and all of the other trimmings of an excursion are in order.

All kinds of bathing suits are the fashion and they take to the water like ducks and fight when they have to leave it.

From July 1st. to September 15th these regular excursions are conducted for the sole purpose of giving to the children of the crowded city tenements glorious days of fun, fresh-air and uninterrupted freedom.

GOING TO GOD'S WOODS

"I WANT GOD'S WOODS!" "THAT" (CONTEMPTUOUSLY POINTING TO THE BEAUTIFUL CITY PARK) "IS MAN'S WOODS"

Thus a little Americanized alien expressed herself on the journey to the country on a Salvation Army excursion. The beautifully clipped lawns and carefully trimmed shrubbery aroused no sentiment but indifference. She wanted the freedom and joy of a real forest—to roll on the grass, climb trees and do all the other joyous things that comes to the slum children out when the Salvation Army becomes their fairy god-mother and transports them to one of its fresh air camps.

YOUTHFUL "BABE RUTH'S"

CHOOSIN' SIDES!

Who knows how many "Babe Ruths" and "Ty Cobbs" will develop under the Salvation Army's methods of putting fun, fresh air and a little wholesome freedom into the lives of thousands of the poor children of the big cities through their regular weekly summer outings, which they conduct from May 1st to September, annually.

By boats and by trains these children are transplanted to the green fields and beaches, where for an all too short holiday, they have a wonderful time of play.

Wickersham Wins House Seat

George B. Grigsby, Democratic delegate from Alaska, was ousted from the house March 1, by a vote of 182 to 162. James Wickersham (portrait herewith) was seated by 177 to 162. He was immediately sworn in and according to a statement made on the floor, was entitled to receive about $7,000 a day until the end of the term March 4.

In 1918 James Wickersham, Charles A. Sulzer, and Francis Connelly were rivals for the office of delegate from Alaska. The canvassing board announced the vote as follows: Sulzer, 4,487; Wickersham, 4,454; and Connelly, 329, giving Sulzer a plurality of 33. Wickersham contested. April 15, 1919, Sulzer died, and two days later the canvassing board declared Sulzer had been elected. Shortly thereafter a special election was ordered to fill the vacancy created by Sulzer's death. George B. Grigsby became the Democratic candidate. Wickersham, still claiming election in 1918, declined to submit his name. As a result of that special election Grigsby was declared the victor. Thereupon Wickersham broadened his contest proceedings so as to make them challenge the right of Grigsby as the successor of Sulzer.

SHOE INDUSTRY IMPROVING, NEW ENGLAND EXPERT SAYS

Atlantic City, N. J. May 7.—Conditions in the shoe and leather industries are improving, Herbert T. Drake, president of the New England Shoe and Leather Association, today told the Tanners' Council of America.

Reporting on a canvas of leading New England shoe manufacturers and tanners, Mr. Drake said:

"Opinion is generally crystallized in the shoe and leather industries that we have at last turned the corner in the long, dismal lane of business depression and for the first time can look forward with confidence to a gradual return to normal conditions.

"A great deal has been said about the price adjustment on shoes depending upon liquidation of labor. In the three largest New England footwear centers there have been no wage reductions in spite of the efforts of the manufacturers The result has been a very narrow margin of profit for the manufacture and bedrock prices for the shoe buyer.

"Consumers of shoes will be disappointed when they realize that 10, 15 or even 20 per cent reduction in the shoe workers' wages means only 10 to 20 cents per pair in the shoes he buys."

Do you wake up tired?

If you feel "lazy", listless, sleepy at the wrong time it is a danger signal. Probably your vigor is being sapped by "self-poisoning".

Self-poisoning through constipation leads to the most dangerous diseases. When you allow constipation to take hold of your system, you are paving the way to the whole train of serious ill nesses which follow.

Pills, castor oil, laxative waters and salts only force and irritate the bowels and make constipation a habit.

Nujol works on an entirely new principle.

Instead of forcing or irritating the system, it simply softens the food waste. This enables the many tiny muscles in the walls of the intestines, contracting and expanding in their normal way, to squeeze the food waste along so that it passes naturally out of the system.

Nujol thus prevents constipation because it helps Nature maintain easy, thorough bowel evacuation at regular intervals—the healthiest habit in the world.

Nujol is absolutely harmless and pleasant to take. Try it.

Nujol is sold by all druggists in sealed bottles only, bearing Nujol Trade Mark. Write Nujol Laboratories, Standard Oil Co. (New Jersey), 50 Broadway, New York, for booklet "Thirty Feet of Danger".

"Run Down" People Easy Prey To Serious Disease

When you get "run down" it merely means your system is disordered,—working poorly. If the disorder stays small, you may remain just "run down." But if it gets worse, you are downright sick.

Don't wait until your "run down" condition develops into real illness. Start today toning your system with an A-1 blood remedy to drive out the impurities, a vegetable medicine like S.S.S., which has served thousands thus in the last half century.
